18	Date of Detention Hearing : March 20, 2008
19	The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and
20	based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds
21	that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure
22	the appearance of defendant as required and the safety of other persons and the community.
	DETENTION ORDER 18 U.S.C. § 3142(i) PAGE 1 15.13 Rev. 1/91

FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

- 1. Defendant's true identity is uncertain. The name that he gives is different that the name to which his fingerprints in the National Crime Information Center are linked. Further, the AUSA proffers information that alleges the defendant has gone to significant lengths to hide his identity, including changing his fingerprints.
- 2. Defendant does not have a stable residence. He has been living in a commercial space which is scheduled to be demolished. A firearm was found in the unit at the time a search warrant was executed.
- 3. Criminal history associated with the defendant includes warrant activity for failure to appear. Prior charges include fraud, forgery, criminal impersonation, escape, fugitive charges, and multiple uses of aliases. There are at least two active warrants.
- 4. Defendant poses a risk of nonappearance due to association with alias identifiers, uncertainty regarding his true identity, lack of verification of contact information, a history of failing to appear and to comply with court orders, a lack of stable residence and several outstanding warrants. He poses a risk of danger due to criminal history.
- 5. There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings while addressing the danger to other persons or the community.

It is therefore ORDERED:
